Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit;
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

-Rev. 1,8.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On the first weekend of July we will return completely to our normal summer schedule with the added 7am Mass in Most Holy Trinity Church and the 9am Mass in St. Peter's in Amagansett.

This summer, we will be assisted by Fr. Michael Plona, a priest of our Diocese. Fr. Mike's assignment as a chaplain at St. Anthony's High School and Holy Trinity High School has come to an end and with school out, he is more than happy to help our parish until he begins his next assignment in September. I am very grateful for his help and I know he will be a solid blessing on our parish during the summer.

There will be further details regarding the next phase of the summer schedule though in the meantime, let us all pray well as we approach the upcoming season. May it be a time of peace, patience, and joy.

It is a sign of God's good humor and blessing that the Feast of the Holy Trinity harkens the golden days of summer for our parish and community. In the warmth of these coming months, let us contemplate the countenance of God and be grateful for all the provisions of Jesus Christ.

May God bless you,

Fr. Ryan

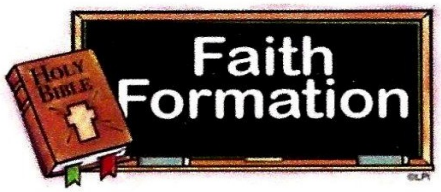
Most Holy Trinity Faith Formation

Most Holy Trinity Parish is where the joy of the gospel is proclaimed, taught and lived

We are looking for good people to become Catechists in the fall.
We will be going back to in person classes and need Catechists to help instruct the children starting in September.

Any teenagers that would like to do community service for your school and for your upcoming college transcripts. Please consider becoming a catechist and helping to educate the children of our parish in their faith.

You can call the office at 631-324-0134x730
or email dgrogan@mht-eh.org
with any questions about the program



Registration for 2022-2023

The Faith Formation office is now accepting registrations for the 2022-2023 school year. You can stop by the office to register or email Diane at dgrogan@mht-eh.org for the forms or with your questions.
To insure your choice of program either A or B please register early.

Catechist meeting
June 19th

The Faith Formation office will be having a Catechist meeting right after the 9:30 Mass. The meeting will be held in the school meeting room. Everyone who signed up to be a Catechist in the fall as well as anyone who would like to know about becoming a Catechist is welcome to come to this meeting. A light breakfast will be served and Deacon Larry will talk about the classes for the fall.

Look for your tickets coming soon in the mail, but if you can't wait…..
Tickets are also available at the Church Office.
