“When we pray, the voice of the heart must be heard
more than the proceedings from the mouth.”

-St. Bonaventure

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday, we are once again called to contemplate the nature of prayer by Christ. In St. Luke's rendition of the Pharisee and the tax collector, we see the essence of good prayer.

At the end of the week, we will celebrate two great feasts of the Church: the Feast of All Saints and the Commemoration of All Souls. Both of these important observations of the Church present us with a strong opportunity to exercise our ability to pray. November is the month traditionally appointed for focusing our prayer on the souls of those who have died. This tradition is both beautifully rooted in history but relevant to all of us in our time as we apply our personal and ecclesial prayers for the eternal rest of the faithful departed.

Interestingly enough, the Feast of All Saints precedes the month of prayer for the dead. On Friday, the activity of Halloween will remind us that the opportunity for focused prayer is approaching. While the costumes we are bound to see around town will not all be the costumes of saints as in ages past, the history of All Hallowed's Eve is a great reminder that we are joined in prayer with the saints in our spiritual undertaking of commending the deceased to God.

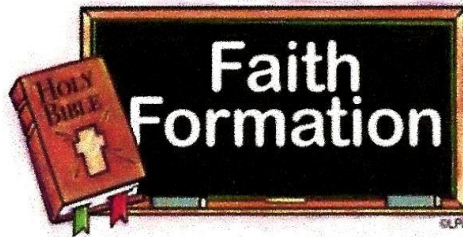

Honest and earnest prayer that is close to the Lord can make saints out of us as well. There is a great communion that exists between the saints in Heaven as our intercessors, the souls we commend to God as our intentions, and the Church on earth that values its ability to pray privilege and adventure. Let us pray well with the inspiration of the Gospel of this Sunday in its approach to prayer and the reward of Heaven for those who draw close to the Lord.

May God bless you,

You can make a difference in the lives of those around us by making a gift to this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal

Every Gift Counts!

A gift of $25 may help pay the gas for a Meals-On-Wheels van to deliver food for a day.

A gift of $50 from an emergency fund may help pay the electric bill in a cold winter month for a family in need.

A gift of $100 may help a Catholic Campus Minister bring daily Mass to students.

A gift of $250 may help subsidize a home for an adult who is developmentally disabled.

A gift of $1,000 may help support a Seminarian's education.

Because of you, every year we serve more than 600,000 people in our Long Island Community. This support enables our children to continue to receive the gift of spiritual formation, sacramental preparation, and quality education. It allows seminarians and lay leaders to fulfill their calling to serve the community. With your support, Catholic Charities can maintain its services for the poor and disadvantaged, and we can continue to reach out to our young people and others to find the best ways to guide and pass on our faith from generation to generation.
