“Upright is the word of the Lord, and all his works are trustworthy.
He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the Lord the earth is full.”

-Ps. 33, 4-5.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

When Christ declares he is the Way, the Truth, and the Life, he makes clear his essential connection to his people is a timeless and complete connection; there is nothing less to the comprehensiveness of the relationship. His announcement of being Way, the Truth, and the Life is made under the circumstance of the Apostles expecting Christ’s crucifixion. His revelation is meant to bring as much peace to the early Church as it is the power and majesty of God. We must always remember the Way, the Truth, and the Life is derived from Christ’s love for his people and his command that we love one another. The Church’s life in the world through us is rooted in the notion of Christ’s love. St. Augustine discusses beauty of the love of the Way, the Truth, and the Life well:

“The Lord Jesus declares that He is giving His disciples a new commandment, that they should love one another. “A new commandment,” He says, “I give unto you, that you love one another.” But was not this already commanded in the ancient law of God, where it is written, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself?” Leviticus 19:18 Why, then, is it called a new one by the Lord, when it is proved to be so old? Is it on this account a new commandment, because He has divested us of the old, and clothed us with the new man? For it is not indeed every kind of love that renews him that listens to it, or rather yields it obedience, but that love regarding which the Lord, in order to distinguish it from all carnal affection, added, “as I have loved you.” For husbands and wives love one another, and parents and children, and all other human relationships that bind men together: to say nothing of the blame-worthy and damnable love which is mutually felt by adulterers and adulteresses, by fornicators and prostitutes, and all others who are knit together by no human relationship, but by the mischievous depravity of human life. Christ, therefore, has given us a new commandment, that we should love one another, as He also has loved us. This is the love that renews us, making us new men, heirs of the New Testament, singers of the new song.” (Augustine, Tract. John, Treatise 65.)

Let us pray well in God’s all encompassing love.

May God bless you,

DIOCESE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE

One Family - Journeying together in Communion, Participation and Mission

"Welcoming people with disabilities and responding to their needs is a duty of the civil and ecclesial communities,"

-Pope Francis

The goal of the Parish Social Ministry is to connect and bring people together in communion in order to build community. At Our Lady Queen of Martyrs, Centerport, there are approximately 15 ministries that are a part of the PSM; youngsters to seniors minister to build a community of faith, hope and love.

Christopher is a Leader in the OLQM Special needs Respite Program for many years.

"It's a very fun way for people with special needs to socialize and meet new people by participating in various activities , games and special breakfasts with prayer and guest speakers. There is a Special Needs mass and I lector. The program has helped me build more confidence socially and to step outside of my comfort zone and to interact with more people with special needs. My family is blessed to have me a part of the program," shared Christopher.

To make a donation, you can also visit <https://www.drvc.org/CMA/> or call us at 516-678-5800 ext. 296. Thank You!

DIÓCESIS DE ROCKVILLE CENTRE

*Una Familia Caminando juntos en
Comunión, Participación y Misión*

“Acoger a las personas con discapacidad y responder a sus necesidades es un deber de la comunidad civil y eclesial”. Papa Francisco

El objetivo del Ministerio Social Parroquial es conectar y acercar a la gente en comunión para construir comunidad. El Ministerio Social Parroquial de la iglesia Our Lady Queen of Martyrs en Centerport tiene aproximadamente 15 ministerios, a los que acuden desde los más pequeños hasta los ancianos para construir una comunidad de fe, esperanza y amor.

Christopher lleva muchos años liderando el Programa de Relevos para personas con Capacidades Especiales de la iglesia Our Lady Queen of Martyrs (OLQM). Él nos dice:

“Es una forma divertida para que las personas con habilidades diferentes socialicen, conozcan a otras personas, participen en diversas actividades, juegos, y desayunos especiales con oraciones y presentadores invitados.

Tenemos una Misa para personas con Necesidades Especiales donde yo soy lector. Este programa me ha ayudado a tener más confianza socialmente, me ha sacado de mi zona de confort, me ha animado a interactuar con más gente que tienen habilidades especiales. Para mi familia es una bendición que yo participe en este programa.”
