“Father, hallowed be your name.”
-Luke 11, 2.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday we are treated to Christ’s teaching of the Our Father as a reminder of God’s love for conversation between us and Him but also as a reminder of well constructed prayer.

We do not negotiate with God, we do not complain, we do not waste our time; instead, the Christian people have a direct bridgehead to the purpose and advancement of communicating with the Lord thanks to his instruction. The beauty of the Our Father is its directness- both simple and comprehensive, and all at once.

St. Teresa of Avila described the essence of Christian prayer quite well: “You pay God a compliment by asking great things of him.”

We ask the Lord for our daily bread and we receive the miracle of the Eucharist. This is a splendid relationship which should embolden our prayers for all matters and infuse our actions with the grace of the Holy Spirit so that the world may be inspired by the daily grace and comportment of Christians in the world.

Let us always endeavor to pray well.

May God bless you,
