Pastor's Letter

"Our faith, then, is in him who 'ascended into heaven and sits at the Father's right hand. He will come in glory to judge the living and the dead, and of his kingdom there will be no end."

-St. Cyril of Jerusalem, Catecheses, 15, 3.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday, the Church inaugurates a new year of grace with the first Sunday of Advent. This is a fast moving time of the year as we use the month of December to celebrate the Incarnation of Christ, a seminal point in the history of salvation which rightly warrants a period of preparation.

Advent is a time of honor for the festivities in honor of Christ which approach. As the people of God, we are what the bishop Bossuet calls "a race made in a particular manner- a children of promise." That is, a people which is one of grace, blessing, and a people destined to enjoy the saving grace of the Lord. The revelation of Sacred Scripture which points to the coming of the Messiah is a great source of promise for us. In this season, we must see how the sacred word hints toward the hidden riches in the words of God to Eve, "in you and one of your race all the nation of the earth shall be blessed." (Gen. 22,18.)

Let us pray well and confidently this Advent to grow well in our understanding of the Lord's will in our lives and to grow well in recognizing the Lord's blessings.

May God bless you,

Fr. Ryan

Cormaria Retreat Upcoming Events

December 3, 2026 from 10am - 3pm • Advent: Overture to Christmas, the Time of No Room
Facilitator: Fr. Richard Long Offering: $50

How can we truly celebrate the essence of Christmas unless we willfully create room for God's arrival into our midst? That moment of Epiphany is not something that happened only in the distant past. God is with us every moment of every day...Emmanuel! Let us celebrate Advent as a joyful opportunity to venture into the future with hope.

December 17, 2027 from 10am - 3pm • Weathering Storms During the Holiday Season
Facilitator: Susan McCarthy Offering: $50

For so many the holidays are a joyous time. For others, they can be a challenging whirlwind ~ a storm to be weathered. As we begin to see and trust Christ in the storm, we can use this time to step out of the day-to-day struggles and begin the process of becoming regrounded in our faith.

December 20, 2026 at 9:30 am • Holly Ivy Holiday Breakfast Fundraiser
Offering: $50

Gather with us at our Holly Ivy Breakfast to create new memories and reminisce about years past. Guests will also have the opportunity to bring home a Christmas Gingerbread House created by Chef George Hirsch.

Advanced payment is required, please.
For more information or to register call: 631-725-4206 or email info@cormaria.org
Cancellations will result in a credit within one year
