“Remember your mercies, Lord.”
-Ps. 25, 6.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This time of year inaugurates the beginning of the school year; be it day-care, elementary school, college, professional training, or religious education, everyone is entering back into the ether of contemplating essential truths.

Our own parish has begun its religious education program (in-person for the Communion and Confirmation classes) and these classes have begun with great enthusiasm on the part of both students and their generous teachers. We ask for your prayers for those who strive for holy knowledge together, both students and teachers, that this year may be a fruitful endeavor in deepening the faith in each of our parishioners engaged in religious education. I offer the words of prayer of St. Thomas Aquinas for students as an inspiration:

Come, Holy Spirit, Divine Creator, true source of light and fountain of wisdom! Pour forth your brilliance upon dense intellect, dissipate the darkness which covers us, that of sin and of ignorance. Grant us a penetrating mind to understand, a retentive memory, method and ease in learning, the lucidity to comprehend, and abundant grace in expressing ourselves. Guide the beginning of our work, direct its progress, and bring it to successful completion. This I ask through Jesus Christ, true God and true man, living and reigning with You and the Father, forever and ever.

Amen.

May all of our students do well this year and may all of us study the path of holiness with renewed intensity and success.

May God bless you,
