Accipite, et bibite ex eo omnes. Hic est enim calix sanguinis Mei, novi et aeterni testamenti: mysterium fidei: qui pro vobis et pro multis effundetur in remissionem peccatorum. Haec quotiescumque feceritis, in Mei memoriam facietis.

Take, all of you and drink of this, for this is the chalice of my Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal testament: the mystery of faith: which shall be poured out for you and for many unto the remission of sins.

-Missale Romanum

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The month of July is historically dedicated to the theme of the Precious Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ. It is a spiritual reminder that we can regularly meditate upon the beautiful mystery of Christ's presence in the Eucharist first of all. More specifically for the month however, the theme of the Blood of Christ recalls his sacrifice for us on the Cross. There is a combination in our veneration of the Eucharist and in our giving thanks for Christ's sacrifice; after all, "Eucharist," εὐχαριστία, is the Greek for Thanksgiving. While we give thanks together in the Mass, we are also able to give thanks on our own through thoughtful prayer.

It is appropriate that we consider the Precious Blood of Christ at the beginning of the first summer month. The next couple of months will be riven with vacations, reunions, weddings, and relaxation. The source of such peace and goodness is of course, Our Lord. We must remember, that which is good reflects the reward of Heaven which was achieved for us by the sacrifice of Christ. When we breathe easy this summer, when we are in a joyful moment with our loved ones, when there is peace in our day, let us give thanks for the creative power of God the Father and the sacrifice of Christ which made felicity of life possible for us.

May God bless you,

Dear Friends:

The Diocese of Rockville Centre has an extraordinary history of providing help and support to hundreds of thousands of people every year. More than forty unique programs and ministries receive funding because of generous parishioners like you – who make a gift each year to the Catholic Ministries Appeal. These programs help us to live our faith, as well as improve the lives of our neighbors. I pray that I can count on you to make a gift once again this year.

The Appeal helps our diocesan community feed the hungry, educate our children, provide adequate shelter for senior citizens and disadvantaged families, address the spiritual needs of people from many diverse ethnic backgrounds, and support the needs within each parish. It is truly a Long Island effort that allows us to come together As One Family in Mission.

Additionally, your gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal support the education of our seminarians as they prepare to become priests for our Diocese, seminarians like Joseph Krug.

"As a seminarian, I am tasked with learning all that I can about our great Catholic Faith, to be better equipped to help bring people closer to God as a Priest.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal has provided me with all the resources I need to study well, so that I will be ready to preach the Gospel in the Diocese of Rockville Centre."

It is because of seminarians like Joseph and others who are served by the Appeal, that I ask you to prayerfully consider renewing your pledge. If you have already made your gift, please know how deeply grateful I am. If you have yet to respond, I invite you to make your gift at this time. If it is more convenient, please consider pledging your gift by making four monthly payments. The Appeal Office will be happy to send you monthly reminders with envelopes.

It is only through your generous support, that we will be able to serve all of God's people here on Long Island.

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres
