*St. Joseph,
Ora Pro Nobis*

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This past Wednesday, the Church commemorated the feast of St. Joseph, a timely guide for our Lenten time. While the feast is not as popular as the commemoration of St. Patrick two days earlier, it holds a major place in certain cultures which celebrate the Guardian of the Messiah and is a great bolt of stability and thought in the Church's tradition. From its earliest days to our time, St. Joseph has been an anchor of the faith for the Christian in the world. The late Pope Benedict XVI compounded five lessons which are useful for our Lenten meditation:

St. Joseph lived in righteousness

St. Joseph obeyed God without hesitation.

St. Joseph served as a strong earthly father and protected his family.

St. Joseph served as a provider for his family.

St. Joseph demonstrated the value of human labor as instituted by God.

(Homily, 3/19/06)

The virtues of the patron of the Universal Church are ideas which we would do well to consider and ideals toward which we should strive in our own Christian existence. Let us always remember the example of faith, trust, and strength which the life of St. Joseph provides for us.

May God bless you,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Fr. Ryan', with a stylized flourish extending to the right.

Fr. Ryan

This Lent, Give the Gift of Hope

Instead of giving something up this Lenten season, why not give something that truly makes a difference? By donating to Tomorrow's Hope Foundation, you can bring opportunity and the promise of a brighter future to families who wish to send their child to a Catholic elementary school on Long Island.

To make a tax deductible donation, please mail your check to Tomorrow's Hope Foundation II, Inc. at the address below with "Church Bulletin" in the memo OR scan the QR code to donate online:

The mission of Tomorrow's Hope Foundation is to ensure the excellence as well as the continuance of Catholic elementary schools on Long Island by increasing awareness and by providing scholarship and program funding for the needs of students and schools.

Tomorrow's Hope Foundation is an independent 501(c)(3) organization overseen by a Board of Directors with a passion for providing access to Catholic education on Long Island to all families that seek it.
