Qui bene canta bis ora.
He who sings well prays twice.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend we will bid farewell to Christine Cadarette, who has served as the Parish Music Director for many years faithfully and with great skill. It is incumbent upon us to pray for her and her family as they move on after careful preparation.

More importantly, we must give thanks to God for calling Christine to serve our parish. We have all benefited greatly from her earnest passion and professional skill for music, blended with a deep love of the faith.

At the same time, let us thank Christine herself for the service and taken which she has applied to the liturgies, the act of organization of schedules, recruitment of help, and weekly preparation for Sunday worship.

Christine's parting gift has been to prepare the new coordinator for music, Mr. Jonathan Howe, with a smooth entrance into the role based on a description of the environment into which he has already had some participation. Plenty of advice has also been part of the transitional process.

Once again, many thanks to Christine, and all God's blessings! Be assured of our prayers and if you ever need anything from Most Holy Trinity, just sing out.

May God bless you,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Fr. Ryan", with a stylized flourish extending to the right.

Fr. Ryan
