"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting."
-Ps. 118, 2.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

One of the crowing achievements of the Easter season is the entrance into the Church of new believers through Baptism, reception into full Communion, perhaps the celebration of Matrimony at the beginning of Spring, and possibly the ordination of priests at the end of the period (depending on the calendar for the year.)

St. Augustine describes the newness of the Easter season well in one of his sermons to newly baptized adults:

Such is the power of this sacrament: it is a sacrament of new life which begins here and now with the forgiveness of all past sins, and will be brought to completion in the resurrection of the dead. You have been buried with Christ by baptism into death in order that, as Christ has risen from the dead, you also may walk in newness of life. You are walking now by faith, still on pilgrimage in a mortal body away from the Lord; but he to whom your steps are directed is himself the sure and certain way for you: Jesus Christ, who for our sake became man. For all who fear him he has stored up abundant happiness, which he will reveal to those who hope in him, bringing it to completion when we have attained the reality which even now we possess in hope. (Sermon 8, de Hebdomada alba.)

We must remember the Easter season invites us to rekindle the newness of our Baptisms as we contemplate the miracle of the Resurrection of Christ; with God all things are possible and from the moment of our Baptism to the current Easter season, let us remember the greatness of participating in this reality of God's infinite power over the world, but also his loving closeness to us individuals.

May God bless you,
