“Here I am Lord, I come to do your will.”

-Ps. 40, 8-9.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With the feast of the Baptism of the Lord last Monday, the Christmas season has come to its official end and we now enter the season of Ordinary Time. The coming feasts of the Church such as the Presentation of the Lord, the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the feast of St. Blaise, to name a few have a specific character which is meant to allow us to use this time of the new year to prepare for lives which are healthy and happy.

Our faith has many proud traditions which have developed from our experience of the world around us, such that various blessings and celebrations reflect the seasons and natural developments which regularly occur. Though technology may change and hopefully improve, nature remains the same and so too does the Church's tradition.

This Sunday, comfortable on the heft of the joy of Christmas, we recommit ourselves to a year of holiness through faith and good works. Our efforts will be informed by attentiveness to the sacraments and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit at all times. For the season of Ordinary Time, St. Francis de Sales recommends seven “ordinary virtues:” patience, forbearance toward our neighbor, service of others, humility, gentleness of heart, affability, and tolerance of our own imperfections.

With these as part of our daily practice, we can enjoy a healthy Christian existence.

May God bless you,
