"Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord."
-Ps. 89, 2.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In keeping with the traditional devotional focus of the month of June, below is an excerpt of a mediation by St. Teresa of Avila on the power of the human heart, in a spiritual sense, when it is attached to the love of God so prevalent in the Sacred Heart of Christ:

Let us remember then, that within us there is a place of immense magnificence. The entire edifice is built of gold and precious stones... Truly there is no building of such great beauty as a pure soul, filled with virtues; and the greater these virtues, the brighter these stones sparkle... In this palace the great King lodges, who has been pleased to become your Guest, and He sits there on a throne of tremendous value- your heart." (The Way of Perfection and Conceptions of Divine Love, 4.)

Let us entrust ourselves to the love of the Sacred Heart of our Lord Jesus Christ so that we may reflect the fullness of his love in our prayers and actions, always relying on his assistance as the promise of the heavenly reward for those of good will.

May God bless you,

Fr. Ryan
