“Comfort, give comfort to my people says your God.”
-Isaiah 40,1.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday, the Church concludes the Christmas season and we move into Ordinary Time. The feast of the Baptism of the Lord is an appropriate feast and an important moment for us to consider how we manifest the joy of Christmas in our daily actions for the entirety of the upcoming year.

As Christians, our Baptism has initiated us into a powerful combination of patience and wisdom. The dignity of our Baptism fuels the wealth of wisdom that is our Christian faith. That faith makes us the example of the culture that should reign. Grounded in the life-long extension of Christ, who enjoyed a Baptism he didn't need, but blessed as an example to us, the teaching of Christ can shine for others from each of us. Our Baptism calls us to be the example of the God who loves, the prince of peace, the wonder-counselor.

Baptized in Christ, we are one and can bring peace to all the world, since we live in order to be beloved sons and daughters in whom the Father is well pleased. We will pray for peace in this coming year, as always and we must be vigilant for opportunities to contribute to the pursuit of peace and amity according to each of our unique abilities and situations. Let us make sure that our faith is strong so that we may be vigilant and diligent in service with good, Christian confidence.

May God bless you,
