"He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord."
-Ps. 15, 1.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the healthy entrance into this summer, we are treated with the reminder of God's care for his people in both the words of the Gospel but also in the presence of cherished visitors and long-time meet-ups where we re-kindle fond relations with loved ones from all different aspects of our lives.

This Sunday, we remember, honor, and contemplate personally the encouragement of Our Lord to pray and listen, following the example of St. Mary. St. Mary (most likely the sister of Cleopas) is able to override the anxiety which plagues her sister Martha so that she may grow in the faith. It is a great evangelical exhortation to each Christian.

St. Ambrose refers poignantly to the ability of each Christian to use the words, prayers, and tradition we possess to do precisely what St. Mary was able to do in peace and relaxation:

When does God the Word most often knock at your door?- When his head is covered with the dew of night. He visits in love those in trouble and temptation, to save them from being overwhelmed by their trials. His head is covered with dew or moisture when those who are his body are in distress. That is the time when you must keep watch so that when the bridegroom comes he may not find himself shut out, and take his departure. If you were to sleep, if your heart were not wide awake, he would not knock but go away; but if your heart is watchful, he knocks and asks you to open the door to him.

(St.Ambrose, Commentary on the Psalms, Cap.8.)

Let us be awake and attentive this Sunday, not only in obedience to the Lord, but with great joy.

May God bless you,

Dear Friends:

The Diocese of Rockville Centre has an extraordinary history of providing help and support to hundreds of thousands of people every year. More than forty unique programs and ministries receive funding because of generous parishioners like you – who make a gift each year to the Catholic Ministries Appeal. These programs help us to live our faith, as well as improve the lives of our neighbors. I pray that I can count on you to make a gift once again this year.

The Appeal helps our diocesan community feed the hungry, educate our children, provide adequate shelter for senior citizens and disadvantaged families, address the spiritual needs of people from many diverse ethnic backgrounds, and support the needs within each parish. It is truly a Long Island effort that allows us to come together As One Family in Mission.

Additionally, your gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal support the education of our seminarians as they prepare to become priests for our Diocese, seminarians like Joseph Krug.

"As a seminarian, I am tasked with learning all that I can about our great Catholic Faith, to be better equipped to help bring people closer to God as a Priest.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal has provided me with all the resources I need to study well, so that I will be ready to preach the Gospel in the Diocese of Rockville Centre."

It is because of seminarians like Joseph and others who are served by the Appeal, that I ask you to prayerfully consider renewing your pledge. If you have already made your gift, please know how deeply grateful I am. If you have yet to respond, I invite you to make your gift at this time. If it is more convenient, please consider pledging your gift by making four monthly payments. The Appeal Office will be happy to send you monthly reminders with envelopes.

It is only through your generous support, that we will be able to serve all of God's people here on Long Island.

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres
