Christmas 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Christmas season we once again turn to the miraculous Incarnation of Christ; the Son of God sent to us as Man. The Word in the flesh is presented to us with the angelic exclamation: "Peace to people of good will!" On this holiday we rejoice that peace follows the God present for us. Bishop Jacques-Bénigne Bossuet exhorts us at Christmas:

"This peace is the subject of the glory of God. Let us rejoice in this peace...because it glorifies God in the high throne of his glory; let us elevate ourselves to the high places, to the greatest height of the throne of God in order to glorify him in himself, and to love what he made in us only in relation to him." (Élévations sur la naissance de Jésus-Christ : 9.)

As we elevate our prayerful thoughts and mediation over the peace of God, this Christmas, let us 'go to the crib' and recognize the closeness of the Lord to us at all times. It is in beholding the miracle of God, swaddled in the humility of the manger when refresh our good will and elevate our minds to the high places and enjoy the reality of the throne of God. Kneeling at the crib anticipates the throne.

Far too often over the course of a year, we may not give enough credit to our individual senses of hope and the hard work that goes into living a life of faith, rooted in prayer and expressed in good works. This Christian path is built on the culture, civilization, and mindset of those who believe in the God who became Man. Let us thank the Lord for his gift of faith, hope, and love for us and to us; and use this Christmas to empower the next year as one of peace and holiness.

Merry Christmas!

Fr. Ryan

Christmas 2025

To the People of God of the Diocese of Rockville Centre:

Merry Christmas!

Throughout this year, we have marked many significant milestones in the life of the Church leading us to the Lord's Nativity and this holy season of Christmas, most especially the passing of Pope Francis at Easter and the election of Pope Leo XIV in May.

What a gift it has been to walk these months with our new Holy Father, to learn from his teaching, and witness his example.

On October 4th, the Memorial of Saint Francis of Assisi, Pope Leo released his first Apostolic Exhortation, Dilexit Te - I Have Loved You. It is a profound meditation on love for the poor and speaks powerfully to the mystery of the Lord's Birth and the grace of this season.

The Holy Father reminds us: "The Gospel shows us that poverty marked every aspect of Jesus' life. From the moment he entered the world, Jesus knew the bitter experience of rejection. The Evangelist Luke tells how Joseph and Mary, who was about to give birth, arrived in Bethlehem, and then adds, poignantly, that 'there was no place for them in the inn' (Lk 2:7). Jesus was born in humble surroundings and laid in a manger; then, to save him from being killed, they fled to Egypt (cf. Mt 2:13-15). At the dawn of his public ministry, after announcing in the synagogue of Nazareth that the year of grace which would bring joy to the poor was fulfilled in him, he was driven out of town (cf. Lk 4:14-30). He died as an outcast, led out of Jerusalem to be crucified (cf. Mk 15:22). Indeed, that is how Jesus' poverty is best described: he experienced the same exclusion that is the lot of the poor, the outcast of society. Jesus is a manifestation of this privilegium pauperum. He presented himself to the world not only as a poor Messiah, but also as the Messiah of and for the poor." (n. 19)

Before these words of Pope Leo, we recall the wonderful truth: Christ became poor so that we who are poor might become rich (cf. 2 Cor. 8:9). This is the good news of Christmas. We are not alone. We are not left to ourselves. A Savior has come - Christ the Lord.

As we celebrate the Christmas season, we remember with Pope Leo that "Christian holiness often flourishes in the most forgotten and wounded places of humanity." (n. 76)

How beautifully the followers of Christ have responded to the cry of the poor and looked with love upon the most vulnerable among us. As we rejoice in Christ's Birth, we renew our commitment to love others as he has loved us.

On Sunday, December 28th at the Cathedral of Saint Agnes, on the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, we will conclude our Jubilee Year of Hope.

We thank both Pope Francis and Pope Leo XIV for igniting hope within our families, the global mission of the Church, and the human family, and we contemplate the light and grace that radiates from the refugee Holy Family (73) and that radiates to every family.

Our Catholic biblical and sacramental worship, especially at the Catholic Mass, focuses and ignites both our global mission to the poor (n. 42) and our humble openness to being evangelized by the poor (n. 102), the treasures of our Church (n. 38).

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you and your families!

May the Light and love of the Christ Child animate and guide our global Catholic missionary spirit this Christmas and throughout the New Year.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

No Classes on December 21st – Merry Christmas!

No Classes on December 28th – Happy New Year!

The success of our program depends on volunteers.

Please consider volunteering.

You can make all the difference in a child's life.

In this season of great joy, the Most Holy Trinity's Outreach Program invites you to share a little bit of Christmas with someone less fortunate in our community.

Please select an ornament from the Christmas tree in the Church on the weekend of December 14th.

Please return your wrapped gift (with the ornament taped to the outside of the package) to the Parish Office no later than December 21st. Please do not leave any gifts by the tree in the church.

Thank you! God Bless! Merry Christmas and many blessings in the New Year!
