You will show me the path to life,
abounding joy in your presence,
the delights at your right hand forever.

-Ps. 16, 11.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday, we contemplate the Lord in his encounter with the disciples on the road to Emmaus. This is one of the most important and popular moments of the Gospels in Christian opinion historically since it is a continuous teaching moment.

The sojourners on the road are more than happy to teach their new travel-mate with the history of Christ and his sacrifice and resurrection. Christ is happy to reciprocate with his own teaching as he draws on all of the Holy Scripture and allows for the new experiences of the Christian believers to be secured in the tradition of the Old Testament and enlivened so that they may begin to produce the New Testament in either word itself or deed and example.

The lesson for us is that this system of development and understanding continues to this day. Christ becomes more and more well-known to each and every one of us in the breaking of the bread and the faith is spread through word and deed.

Let us be strengthened at the altar this Sunday so that the Eucharist may be our strength and inspiration in this holy season; the joy of Easter will enhance the Christian desire for God's power and mercy to be projected into the world for the salvation of all.

May God bless you,

Fr. Ryan
