"Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord.
May it be done to me according to your word."

-Luke 1,38.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This week we will commemorate the great theological understanding of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary; it is also a great American commemoration since the Virgin Mary under the title of the Immaculate Conception is the patroness of the United States of America. An ancient devotion attached to a still-young nation (in the eyes of history) is a perfect example of the strength and transmission of the Christian faith. As we proceed deeper into the Advent season, meditation on the Blessed Virgin Mary and prayer to her are appropriate and a strong way for spiritual inspiration. The ancient Salve Maria is one worth recalling:

*Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
our life, our sweetness and our hope.
To you do we cry,
poor banished children of Eve.
To you do we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this valley of tears
Turn then, most gracious advocate,
your eyes of mercy toward us,
and after this exile
show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving,
O sweet Virgin Mary.
Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.
That we may be worthy of the promises of Christ.*

May God bless you,
