“Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith.”

-Heb. 12,1.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday we hear a powerful Gospel of Christ which, while standing on its own, of course, is a great inspiration to many saints who have gone before us.

On this past Monday, the Church celebrated the feast of St. Claire, a woman of powerful inspiration of the Holy Spirit. For this Sunday, I offer one of her prayers written so many years ago and incredibly relevant for us today as we entrust ourselves to God:

I come, O Lord, unto Your sanctuary to see the life and food of my soul. As I hope in You, O Lord, inspire me with that confidence which brings me to Your holy mountain. Permit me, Divine Jesus, to come closer to You, that my whole soul may do homage to the greatness of Your majesty; that my heart, with its tenderest affections, may acknowledge Your infinite love; that my memory may dwell on the admirable mysteries here renewed every day, and that the sacrifice of my whole being may accompany You.

Let us rejoice in each day the Lord has made and pray well to the Lord as he shines upon us.

May God bless you,
