“Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.”

-Ps. 66, 1.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday and this week, the Church finds herself beginning to emerge from the rebirth of the Easter season as the warmth of the sun increases and the reign of its rays extends. Flora and fauna also hop, skip, jump, and blossom onto the scene, reminding us of the newness of life.

The spiritual beauty of the time is the greatest for each of our souls. This weekend and onward, scores of our parishioners will celebrate their First Communion. After them, the old-timers will celebrate their Confirmations. Please pray for them! The parish then moves into a busy period of activity. As Christ emerged triumphant and powerful from the tomb, let us consider how our parish passes through the Easter season in the same way at this time of year. It is one of joy and love, in the deepest sense. The ancient teacher, St. Gregory of Nyssa, describes our situation well:

If love wholly casts out fear and fear is changed into love, then unity consists in all cleaving tighter to the one good which comes through Christ. This is what is indicated in the words of the Song of Songs: “ My perfect dove is one, the sole son of his mother.” The same is more clearly affirmed by the Lord in the Gospel. For when he blessed his disciples and bestowed all power them, he attributed still other blessings to his own prayer to the Father and added, as a supreme blessing, that the disciples would all be one through union with the one sole good. Thus, united by the Spirit of peace, all would form one body and one Spirit, by reason of the one hope to which all are called. (St. Gregory, Homilies on the Canticle of Canticles, 15.)

In the spirit of the Risen Christ, ever ancient, ever new, let us pray well on all things in life in this time of regeneration

May God bless you,

LIFE CENTER OF LONG ISLAND

BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN

This weekend, our parish is starting a Baby Bottle Campaign that will help the Life Center of Long Island to provide Mom's and Dad's with much needed basic essentials for their newborn babies. The Life Center is a non-profit 501(c)3 serving Long Island for over 36 years and have assisted over 68,000 women and helped save over 2,400 babies.

They have now 4 pregnancy care centers known as Women First Pregnancy Options located in Hempstead, Massapequa, Deer Park and Smithtown, strategically located 1 block away or across the street from Planned Parenthoods.

Their primary focus is to educate those facing an unplanned pregnancy about the numerous resources available so they can make truly informed and empowered decisions regarding their unplanned pregnancy with hopes they will choose life for their baby. All services of the Life Center are free!

They provide free pregnancy test kits; free sonogram referrals in collaboration with the Gianna Center of Long Island and Catholic Health hospitals; maternity housing referrals for those who meet certain criteria; Parenting and Life Skills workshops, Support and Healing After Abortion, a Men's Advocacy program and much more.

Their support continues after the baby is born: they provide essential material aid such as diapers, wipes, baby clothes, cribs, car seats, strollers etc. until the baby is two years old.

Throughout COVID these past two years, the Life Center remained open and saved 72 babies lives. They distributed the equivalent of over $800,000 of baby items to over 2300 Moms and Dads from our local communities. 7 women right here within our parish community went to the Life Center for help.

The Life Center is supported entirely by charitable gifts from people like you who call Long Island home. As you leave church today you are asked to take home an empty baby bottle, fill it with your spare change and return it to church on the weekend of June 17th and 18th. Checks can be made out to the Life Center of Long Island.

You'll find a prayer attached to the bottle and we ask you to say that prayer often, even daily for God's blessing on the work of the Life Center and the precious men, women and children they serve.

Thank You!
